"RETURNING BACK TO SCHOOL AFTER THE PANDEMIC"

I was happy when I got to know that "school will be off" I don't have to wake up early and no studies anymore.

Hurray! I will be watching the cartoons whole day.

Son - Oh No!! Mom, I have just seen a message that the school is going to start our online classes from tomorrow.

Mother - Thank god At least you will be busy in your studies.

Son - Where have you kept my all stuff? I am not able to find it.

ONLINE CLASSES STARTED {after few days}

{UPSET} I miss my school, it was more interesting going to school instead of sitting in front of the screen.....

SON - Mamma, when will our school reopen?

MOTHER - Don't worry, son. Most probably the school will be reopening soon.... As the vaccine has arrived with the successful results but still we have to be careful.

A NEW HOPE

Finally! I will be going to school, I had missed a lot asking my teachers for washroom and drinking water, sharing Tiffin with friends, school functions, fun and recess and the most important part of the school i.e. assembly. {Morning Prayer}

NO MORE GETTING STARS, CLAPS, MEDALS ON WHATSAPP IT WILL BE ALL REAL.

AYANSH MITTAL [3- B]

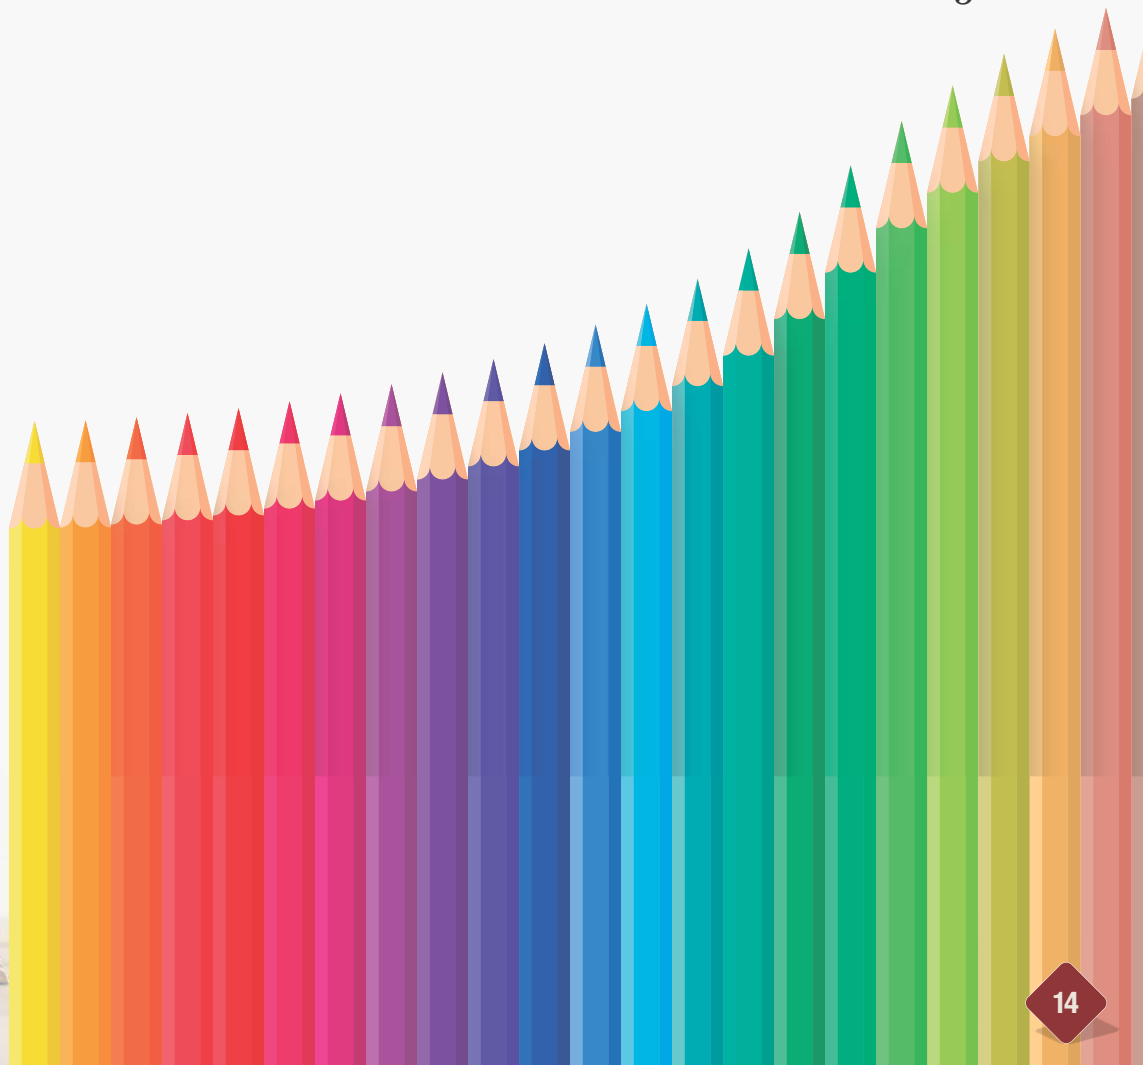

We live on earth, our homeland is in heaven.

I have composed a short poem getting into the nostalgia of the culture of the land in these pandemic times. This poem has helped me discover my appreciation for my homeland.

In my homeland full of greens,
I witness the culture and language That make me feel home.
Eager to return to my culture,
Leave the hustle of the city and be home..
To my granny who is cooking for me , I wanna be back to my home.

TIME was the only reader

Moments etched on her heart, days just passed The leaves started to rot, against her wish, it rained the day, they turned brown she was left with befriended sunshine and few grasped roots, also the memory of the times, the leaves prevented her fall All the way through, she also learned some crowns; at the horizon, the sun stood with uncontrollable hues, the day she left a scar in the turf, taking the water shared with the other flowers. she knew the colours of the bright day, the gloomy day, the moist one; Even the days, the sky roared and she was left boomed;
A story it was, the colours she saw, time being the only loyal leader.
But time wasn't sure whether to sigh or smile, when another flower bloomed.

LETS DO IT

Lets dive deep into the ocean once again
catching your seashells
finding out your pearls lets fly higher into the sky once again
acting like a swift lets twist and swirl leave all the dust behind try reaching your star those knees were crawling once and now they've come so far leave all the darkness behind let's light it up again forget about the past look at the future, my dear you're gonna achieve that rainbow
after so much rain.

ENERGY FLOWS WHERE ATTENTION GOES

Energy flows where attention goes so be focussed to achieve your goal life is complex is the fact your attention is the secret to change it back construct a desire to achieve it all it requires is your attention and your focus to beat it.

Humans are there to push you back they distract your way to go back Ask yourself and follow your path all your attention is the direction to follow the path
No disaster can visit your place unless/until you invite them as a guest make your mind to rise and shine just be focused to achieve that shine doing multitasking isn't going to achieve you the goal
so just be focused on your goal.

keep it simple, smile away the shadows don't let your emotions to rule over you just turn on the lights to fade off the darkness
you will truly get the destiny all to believe is just be focused and attentive
because energy flows where attention goes

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

I've learned from my father's mistakes vow to be great for my childhood sake I will not appear once a year
only to say Happy Birthday instead I'll be your side on your worst days when your team finishes in first place and on your first day of first grade I'll encourage the pursuit of your dreams unlike mine which were diminished please believe in God don't believe in religion please believe in yourself as well as everything you'll envision

EFFECT OF SOCIAL MEDIA ON YOUTH

In today's world, social media has a huge impact on the lives of youth. Be it a 10 year old or a 25 year old, everyone uses social media such as instagram, snapchat or facebook. The pandemic surely increased its use. Anything when used in a proper and healthy manner can never harm someone. Anything that is overused is harmful. Same goes with social media. Our generation is dependent on technology in many ways. The need of the hour is wise and judicious use of social media so that no perils are involved.
